

Wyoming, Where I Belong (G)

D G D G A D

                  D G                          A
Let the rivers flow through the Big Horn Mountains,
                                  G                          C A
Hear the mighty winds blow across the western plains,
                  D G                          A
Oh take me home where I belong,
          D A G A                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I be-long.

                  D G A
The Black Hills rise over Thunder Basin,
                  G                          C A
The Sweet water runs across the Great Divide,
                  D                          A
The wind rivers sweep into the North Platte Valley,
          D G A                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I be-long.
          G D G                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I be-long.

                  D G                          A
A spirit calls to us from the High Absarokas,
                                  G                          C A
The Snake River roars where the eagle soars,
                  D G                          A
Oh save this land, save it for our children,
          D A G A                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I be-long.
          G D G                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I belong.
          G D G                          D
Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, Wy-o-ming, where I be long.
